

CASA-Trinity Study Abroad Programme

About the Programme

The CASA-Trinity Programme offers the opportunity to study abroad for a semester or year at Ireland's most prestigious university, Trinity College Dublin, on a small and academically rigorous programme through the Consortium for Advanced Studies Abroad (CASA). Located in the heart of Dublin City, you'll have access to world-class academics and everything student life at Trinity and social life in Dublin has to offer. And it's easy to get to know Dublin, travel around Ireland and explore Europe while you're here!

Programme Features

- An academic orientation led by the School of Histories & Humanities and designed specifically for CASA students, and a CASA-Trinity orientation programme led by the CASA Programme Director
- Individual study abroad and academic advising, and programme meetings throughout the semester
- Tours to local sites of historical/cultural importance, e.g. Dublin Castle, Kilmainham Gaol, Glasnevin Cemetery, etc.
- Two day-long trips to other areas of Ireland (e.g. a trip to Belfast and the Giants Causeway, a trip to Cork and Blarney Castle)
- Extensive student support throughout the semester, coordinated airport pickup on arrival and 24/7 emergency support

Programme at a Glance

Location	Dublin, Ireland Trinity College Dublin's historic and beautiful campus sits at the very centre of Dublin's city centre. Ireland's vibrant capital city, Dublin is a young, cosmopolitan city with a rich heritage and history. It is a UNESCO City of Literature, the site of EU headquarters of many multinational companies, regularly voted a safe and fun study abroad destination. Located between the mountains and the sea, there is always something new to explore, and from here all of Dublin, Ireland and Europe is right on your doorstep.
Host University	Trinity College Dublin is Ireland's top university, founded in 1592 by Queen Elizabeth I, and is a centre of teaching and research excellence. Trinity provides the perfect opportunity for students who want to experience one of Europe's leading universities, as you can enrol in classes from across the entire university. Trinity has a strong emphasis on independent study with a research-driven curriculum. Trinity's alumni include Nobel Prize Winners, Former Presidents of Ireland, global thought leaders and trailblazers in many disciplines. A semester or year at Trinity College Dublin offers a combination of high-calibre academics, historic surroundings, an unbeatable location in the heart of a bustling English-speaking European capital city, and a fun campus life with clubs, societies and sports groups (including the oldest debating societies in the world!)
Disciplines	The program is open to all undergraduate students from all areas of study. Students can mix and match classes from across Trinity. Students specify 2-6 areas of study at Trinity in their application for admission and then enrol in classes (modules) in those areas of study when they arrive. For full list of disciplines available, see the Study Abroad Guide .
Terms Available	Autumn Semester (Michaelmas Term): Late August to Mid-December Spring Semester (Hilary Term): Mid-January to Early May Academic Year : Late August to Early May
Language of Instruction	English Note: For students interested in the Irish language, there is a popular Irish Language and Literature course available at entry level, a free non-credit Irish Language beginner course available, and advanced Irish Language classes also offered.
Eligibility	Students must have a minimum GPA of 3.1 and must be in good academic standing.
Housing	Depending on capacity, CASA students will either be housed on Trinity's campus apartments, or modern student housing locations near to Trinity. Students will be accommodated in Trinity-owned or Trinity-recommended accommodation, provided students apply by the housing deadline. See more here: http://www.tcd.ie/accommodation/
