

CASA-Melbourne Program Costs

Academic year 2023

Expense	Expense Type	Costs	Notes
Program Fee	Set and billed by Home Institution	Set and billed by Home Institution	Includes: tuition, bespoke orientation program Australia's Place , related academic programming, program sponsored excursions and the services of the onsite program staff.
Medical Insurance	Direct Student Cost	373 AUD* (263 USD approx.) *2022 fee. 2023 fee TBD	All student visa holders to Australia need to have Overseas Student Health Cover . This includes coverage for COVID-19 treatment. https://students.unimelb.edu.au/student-support/international-student-support/visas/overseas-student-health-cover-oshc
Accommodation Fee	Direct Student Cost	Spring 2023 10,530 AUD per semester (7,315 USD approx.)	A number of places have been secured for CASA students at Little Hall – located between the heart of Melbourne and the Parkville campus. Little Hall offers a modern take on a college experience within a premium apartment-style building. For full information: https://study.unimelb.edu.au/discover/accommodation/little-hall
Immigration/visa	Direct Student Cost	630 AUD (440 USD approx.)	All students need to apply for a valid visa prior to their departures to Australia. https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/student-500
Meals/food	Direct Student Cost	140 – 280 AUD per week (100-195 USD approx.)	Please note that these costs will vary widely depending on individual budgets and lifestyle. These are approximate costs from previous students which includes a combination of buying and making food. (Please note that meal plans are not offered at Melbourne, but there are many options for eating on campus.)
Transportation (public)	Direct Student Cost	30 AUD per week (20 USD approx.)	More information about studying and living in Melbourne https://students.unimelb.edu.au/student-support/scholarships-and-financial-support/financial-aid/cost-of-living
Phone and Internet (mobile data)	Direct Student Cost	15 – 30 AUD per week	